Global Alliance for Public Relations and Communication Management

Welcome

I'm delighted to take this opportunity to welcome and thank you for your interest in our Institute.

We have a very simple ethos that has resonated since our inception — our belief that when you enrol on a course you are not just a student but, more importantly, a customer.

This ethos substantiates the core rules of engagement in building a long lasting relationship between you, me, our lecturers, your organisation and indeed our professions. Our reputation has been built on creating brand ambassadors for the European Institute of Communications and its academic faculties of Public Relations, Social Media and Digital Marketing.

The course programme has been designed to ensure that we encapsulate all that is current and relevant so that you can achieve your goals and objectives, no matter what they be. I and my team look at your journey as a partnership. That partnership starts right now and I welcome the opportunity to speak and or meet with you to ensure that your decision is the right decision for you.

Kind regards

Eugene A. Grey FEIPR FPRII FEIC
Director of Education

About the Europe Institute of Public Relations

The European Institute of Public Relations is a specialist academic Institute facilitating course programmes for the professional public relations and communications industries.

Part of the larger European Institute of Communications, which has in excess of 4500 members and is based in Leuven (Belgium) and Dublin (Ireland). Our professional academic importance and status is recognised by its acceptance of membership by the Global Alliance PR (Global Alliance for Public Relations and Communications Management) and by EUPRERA (European Public Relations Education and Research Association).

Our reputation and historical influence is in shaping the professional and academic RR & Communications industry which spans 3 decades. This is in addition to currently facilitating courses throughout Europe, Asia, Australasia, Africa and North & South America. All the lecturers within the Institute are highly regarded practising professionals with extensive academic experience ensuring that all candidates expand their knowledge base across the current spectrum at a national, European and Global level.

European Public Affairs and European Studies

The Post Graduate Diploma in European Public Affairs and European Studies programme aims to equip candidates with the skills to effectively engage their political stakeholders both at a European and national level. This programme provides the theoretical knowledge and professional skills so that candidates can effectively endeavour to understand the structures of the EU and if applicable to influence the decision making process. Whether as an in-house practitioner or a consultant, the programme will enhance and culminate the professional and academic skillsets of candidates to maximise their strategic creative and planning attributes in the EU arena.

Who Should Undertake this Programme

The course has been designed for candidates who:

- Wish to acquire the applicable skills to manage and implement effective public affairs campaigns on behalf of their organisation and/or those working within the NGO environments who manage advocacy on behalf of their organisation.
- Work in PR and Communications that want a professional academic qualification which substantiates and recognises their professional status and experience
- Recently qualified as graduates who want to specialise in Public Affairs and Communications whether in-house or in a consultancy
- Are private sector employees that have, or would like to develop, an engagement with the European Union but are keen to develop a better understanding of the political structure, decision making process, law & policies of the EU.
- Work in the public sector that need to understand how the EU functions, opportunities for funding and networking with EU partners

Course Accreditation & Recognition

The European Public Affairs and European Studies programme is a professional industry programme and accredited by both the European Institute of Communications and internationally by the Global Alliance.

Course Objectives

The objectives of the course in European Public Affairs and European Studies are to provide candidates with an understanding of the European Union, how to engage with the decision making process and influence it.

Candidates will learn about why the European Union exists, why it has such an impact on decisions being taken by national politicians, why it influences business investments and developments, how EU law is made and the role of its Institutions. The course will also look at current topics facing the European Union.

Course Learning Outcomes

On successful completion candidates will have the ability to:

- Be able to explain the political and historical aspects that brought the European Union into being
- Navigate the world of European politics, the various European Union Institutions and the EU legislative process
- Understand the key EU policies of European Integration and the impact they have on Member States, Corporates and the NGO Sector
- Be confident in understanding the law making process in the European Union and how to influence it
- Be able to research and design a public affairs and lobbying campaign aimed at decision makers in the European Union
- Be familiar with the regulation of lobbying in the European Union and in Ireland and comply with the legal requirements to engage with politicians and public officials
